INTRODUCTION

From the British Museum to the National Gallery, from the Tate Modern to the Victoria & Albert Museum and up to numerous galleries and exhibitions spaces, London is one of the most lively City in the world, where every art form finds its space. "Great Master", the International Art Prize, will be held in the East End, where each Artists can have a great exposure: Brick Lane. Brick Lane is a vivid cultural and artistic center, become famous all over the world to be the place where the new tendencies born and grow up: its space between music, fashion and artistic environments of the new British Graffiti Art and of the representative Banksy and Ben Eine. The Brick Lane Gallery, will host the artworks of a selected number of International contemporary artistes, the best interpreters between painters, sculptors and photographers and with different styles and techniques, that they will inspire to the Great Master of the past that populate the most important Museums in London. In London it's possible to admire the most important masterpieces: from Leonardo Da Vinci to Picasso, from Caravaggio to Monet, from Raffaello to Van Gogh, from Botticelli to Cezanne... The International Art Prize "Great Master", is inspired really to the great master of the past, that for a long time represent the source to which every artist is compared, making synthesis of the history looking to the future in the continuous relationship between tradition and progress. The Great Master, are not only the Artists of Ancient Art, but all the Artist that have made of the art the reason of own existence obtaining creative Energy to spread the highest feeling to humanity. All the Artists who will take part to exhibition will received the "Great Master" award.
