I RITRATTI | THE PORTRAITS

permanent exhibition

EXHIBITION PRESENTATION

[IT] Il nostro corpo è solo l'involucro della nostra forza vitale, del nostro spirito, della nostra anima. Ritrarre il corpo è come dipingere una natura morta. Ma dipingere l'anima che fuoriesce dall'espressione degli occhi e del viso è per me un ritratto. È l'anima che ci rende sacri, ma allo stesso tempo infinitamente diversi.

Infatti ho sempre utilizzato la pittura come strumento per crescere nella ricerca dell'Assoluto. Lo cerco in ogni cosa e in ogni persona che dipingo. Lo cerco nella luce che sprigiona da ogni sguardo. Lo cerco nei contrasti tra luce e ombra.

Ho il piacere di presentare questa Mostra virtuale in 3D, pubblicata online il 20 febbraio 2021.

[EN] Our body is just the wrapper of our vital force, our spirit, our soul. Portraying the body is like painting a still-life. But painting the soul that comes out of the expression of the eyes and face, is for me a portrait. It is the soul that makes us sacred, but at the same time infinitely different.

In fact, I have always used painting as a tool to grow in the search for the Absolute. I look for it in everything and in every person I paint. I look for it in the light that emanates from every glance. I look for it in the contrasts between light and shadow.

I am pleased to present this 3D virtual exhibition, published online on February 20, 2021.
